MEDICINAL

IN OLD AGE the question of health is a question of nutrition. If the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are kept in a healthy condition there will be a well-nourished body, and little liability to disorders of the liver, bowels or such other disorders as may result from malnutrition and lack of exercise.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and also diseases of other organs which are caused by the diseased condition of the stomach. By enabling the perfect nutrition of the body it increases the vital power and promotes a vigorous old age.

"I was a sufferer from chronic diarrhea for five years," writes Mrs. Mary A. Aaron, of Reola, Mo. "I tried different remedies, which would give me relief for a short time only. My trouble would return as bad as ever. I consulted you in July, 1900, and by your advice commenced using Dr. Pierce's medicine. I took two bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' three vials of the 'Pelllets,' and some of the 'Extract of Sarsaparilla,' as you advised. I have not had any return of my trouble since using your medicines. Am now seventy-one years old and I never had anything to relieve me so quick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the greatest on earth. Should I ever have any return of my trouble shall use your medicine. My thanks to you for your advice and thanks to Almighty God for restoring me to health through your hands."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the best laxative for old people. They cure constipation and biliousness.

A RABID NEGRO.

James W. Hayes, a negro lawyer of Richmond, who is counsel for a number of negroes who are contesting the legality of Virginia disfranchisement, made a rabid speech in Lincoln Memorial Church, in Washington, Monday night. The speaker said that during the years which have elapsed since the war the negro has not been allowed to advance one inch beyond the place he held when liberated from slavery. "There is nothing in Virginia for the negro," he said, "but degradation, unless the negroes make a firm stand, contend for their rights and, if necessary, die for them. I am not an anarchist," he added, "and I don't mean to go out and kill anybody, but let somebody else kill you. In Virginia," added the speaker, "you are 'Jim Crows.' You opened the meeting tonight by singing 'My Country, 'Tis of Thee,' but I wonder how negroes can sing that song. For myself, I am a man without a country. The time has come when the negro must fight, not theoretically, not intellectually, but with his hands. The disfranchisement of the children of Israel in Egypt has been followed letter for letter by the disfranchisement in the South." He then spoke about Moses being called to lead the Israelites from their bondage, and drew attention to the fact that slavery for 400 years had made them cowards, so that they were obliged to turn back, drawing a parallel to the case of the negro in America. "A second time," he continued, "the children of God arose. This time they had the leadership of Joshua, and when they went forth from the land of their bondage they did not go meekly, but carried the sword in one hand and the torch in the other. In this country," he added, "a second generation has grown up in the 40 years since the war. The Atlanta Constitution has threatened us with the kluksux if the growth of federal appointments in the South continues. I make the prediction that when the southern people start to kluksuxing this time they will not have as the objects of their oppression the same timid people they kluksuxed in the sixties. Negroes are leaving the State of Virginia because of the treatment they are receiving. What we want to do is to start something and keep it up until the white people stop something. We don't intend to be oppressed any longer. We don't intend to be crushed. I am afraid we are anarchistic, that we are anarchists, and I give the warning that if this oppression in the South continues the negro must resort to the sword and torch, and that the Southland will become a land of blood and desolation. I want to make the assertion right here that we are not going to be disfranchised in Virginia. It is written in the heavens and engraved upon the stars that the Virginia negro does not intend to submit to disfranchisement."

IN FAVOR OF LEE STATUE.

In the presence of the full membership of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives and a crowded gallery, Col. A. K. McClure, of Philadelphia, last night delivered an address in support of the proposition that the States of Pennsylvania and Virginia should join hands in erecting an equestrian statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee on Seminary Hill on the battle-field of Gettysburg. Last night's meeting was in the form of a hearing on the bill, with Col. McClure and Judge John Stewart, as the principal speakers. Judge Stewart spoke against the bill. Col. McClure in his address said he did not plead the cause of the Confederacy, but, on the other hand, he pleaded the cause of the Union, the common Union. He wanted to make the battlefield of Gettysburg worthy of the nation. It should in itself tell its own story. He pictured the monuments and tablets on Cemetery Hill, which tell in every detail the story of the Union side of that great battle. Across the fields, on Seminary Ridge, he said, the story of the other side should be told in monument and tablet. They should not be placed there as a tribute to the rebellion, but as a tribute to the blue and gray. Colonel McClure paid a great tribute to the soldiers of the North and the South. Speaking of the opposition to the monument, he called attention to the high places now occupied by Confederate generals. "There is no honor short of the Presidency," he said, "that has not been given to Confederates with the consent of all parties."

A NEW REMEDY.

The old friends of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will be pleased to know that the manufacturers of that preparation have gotten out a new remedy called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and that it is meeting with much success in the treatment of constipation, biliousness, sick headache, impaired digestion and like disorders. These Tablets are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills, then they not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and correct any disorders of the stomach and liver. For sale by Richard Gibbons, druggist.

ELLY'S Liquid Cream Balm is an old friend in a new form. It is prepared for the particular benefit of sufferers from nasal catarrh who are used to an ointment in spraying the diseased membranes. All the healing and soothing properties of Cream Balm are retained in the new preparation. It does not dry up the secretions. Price, including spraying tube, 75 cents. At your druggist or Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.
